Introit for the Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

The LORD is your keeper;
the LORD is your shade on your right hand.

I lift up my eyes to the hills.
From where does my help come?

My help comes from the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.
 He will not let your foot be moved;
he who keeps you will not slumber.

Behold, he who keeps Israel
will neither slumber nor sleep.
 The LORD will keep you from all evil;
he will keep your life.

The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in
from this time forth and forevermore.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Collect for the Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

O God, the protector of all who trust in You, have mercy on us that with You as our ruler and guide we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

New Screens: Some of you may have been wondering why the new screens are in church. Perhaps the best answer is new improved technology. They were paid for with monies from the St. Martin Memorial Trust Fund. Also included in the cost were wiring costs, new computers, and chairs for the two pastors. Additional screens will be installed in the balcony so the pastors can see exactly what is on the large screens in the front. Special thanks to Dennis Federwitz, Nathan Federwitz, and Ted Lipanot for taking down the old screens and installing the new. Please consider gifting some of your earthly assets to the St. Martin Memorial Trust Fund. Over the years, more than $340,000.00 has given back to St. Martin church and school for capital improvement projects.
